

AIA Nebraska Homepage
Nebraska Architect Newsletters

AIA Nebraska

A SOCIETY OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS

AIA SPONSOR

Sponsor Message Area: 560 px. by 90 px.

$250 per week

Nebraska Architect

Projects & Partners

Lincoln Children's Museum KEVA Plank Exhibit

Street signs changing the name of 15th Street to Goodhue Boulevard for seven blocks south of the Capitol in honor of Bertram Goodhue, the Capitol architect.

"My Friend, Norman" a film about Norman Geske, long-time director of Sheldon Art Gallery.

"If These Walls Could Speak- Part II" a documentary produced by UNO Television Omaha.

"Places and Spaces of Nebraska" coloring book for grade school children. Nebraska Humanities Council

"Barn Again!" Nebraska Humanities Council and the Design Alliance of Omaha.

AIA SPONSOR

Sponsor Message Area (between stories):
460 px. by 90 px.

$250 per week

Why does the Architectural Foundation of Nebraska need your support?

A small portion of the AIA Nebraska membership dues go to the Architectural Foundation of Nebraska. In addition, the Architectural Foundation of Nebraska raises funds from architects, engineers, consultants, contractors, developers, suppliers, and allied institutions, corporations, organizations, and individuals related to creating the built environment in Nebraska to help finance our charitable and educational programs.

How can I help?

Write a check payable to the
"Architectural Foundation of Nebraska"