W. Cecil Steward, FAIA, Architectural Excellence Scholarship

AIA Nebraska annually sponsors the W. Cecil Steward, FAIA; Architectural Excellence Scholarship. This scholarship is named for W. Cecil Steward, FAIA, to honor his accomplishments during his tenure at Dean of the College of Architecture at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. This scholarship, in existence for 10+ years, is funded from the AIA Nebraska general fund.

This $1000 scholarship is presented to a current 5th year full time student enrolled in the Professional Program in Architecture at the College of Architecture, University of Nebraska- Lincoln, with at least one semester remaining and must be applying for this scholarship prior to commencement of terminal project.

Applicants must either be a graduate of a Nebraska High School or a current Nebraska resident. AIAS membership encouraged.

Applicants are required to submit an application, statement of goals, summary of outside involvement and/or leadership, Proposed Cultural Experience, and a portfolio of their work.

The Scholarship Committee is comprised of the Department Chair at the College of Architecture, University of Nebraska, and local component presidents from each Nebraska Chapter (Omaha, Lincoln, & Western).

The Scholarship Committee reviews each application, and scores the below criteria 1 to 5 with 5 being the top score. Each score is then averaged among the criteria.

- Completed application, including written requirements
- Overall GPA
- Statement of goals
- Portfolio
- Outside involvement/leadership

The student with the highest score is selected as the scholarship recipient. AIA Nebraska presents this scholarship at the College of Architecture, University of Nebraska-Lincoln Scholarship, and Awards Program.
